

Press Release

Artist Shann Whitaker is excited to launch his latest creative project called Artbloom. Contemporary digital collage canvas art prints, each one containing hundreds of elements depicting a region, city or vibe. Artblooms are striking in their simplistic and colourful design with dozens to choose from. You can add a personal touch by incorporating your own elements and they come in two sizes and frame options.

Shann's 10 year stint in Vietnam and relocating to Mangawhai NZ after the pandemic has influenced his designs, incorporating both Northland NZ and Asian inspired designs with new Artblooms being created every week.
